

19TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE ON
CRIMES AGAINST WOMEN

MAY 20-23, 2024

SHERATON HOTEL | DALLAS, TEXAS

WELCOME TO THE 19TH ANNUAL

CONFERENCE ON CRIMES AGAINST WOMEN

I am honored to welcome you to the 19th annual Conference on Crimes Against Women (CCAW). In partnership with the Dallas Police, Genesis is committed to moving the needle on the way we all respond to crimes perpetrated against women. What began as a 2-day conference of 400 people has grown to become the largest conference of its kind in the country. Over 2,500 attendees from all 50 states and 8 foreign countries have convened to learn best practices to hold perpetrators accountable while providing justice for victims.

For you who have previously attended the national Conference on Crimes Against Women, WELCOME BACK! If you are a first-time attendee, you are in for an amazing four days. There is nothing quite like the energy that comes from a ballroom of thousands of practitioners all coming together with one shared goal – to learn and equip new tools and skills for working with and bringing justice to women who have experienced gender-based violence.

For 19 years, the Conference on Crimes Against Women has provided best practices and resources to system professionals to assist in their role of helping end violence against women. CCAW has been recognized as the nation's leading training resource on these types of crimes. And, since opening our new non-residential center, Genesis has launched the National Training Center on Crimes Against Women. All CCAW attendees will be receiving information about ongoing year-round trainings as we continue to support you in your efforts to end violence against women.

Thank you for continuing to trust us to provide the most cutting-edge, timely education in the field. And thank you for what you do day in and day out. Please know you make a difference. YOU ARE OUR HEROES!

MISSION OF CCAW The mission of the Conference on Crimes Against Women (CCAW) is to provide a national platform to disseminate the highest level of training, information, and strategies to professionals who are responders and advocates to victims of the many and varied forms of crimes against women including domestic violence, human trafficking, sexual assault, and strangulation.

THE DALLAS POLICE DEPARTMENT is dedicated to protecting all Dallas citizens from crimes through its prevention, patrol, and investigative activities. With respect to the victimization of women, the Department has deployed significant resources to effectively investigate the full range of crimes that are committed against women. While all personnel share the responsibility to combat these crimes, the Department has specialized units that have the primary investigative responsibility for the investigation of domestic violence, protective order violations, stalking, sexual assault, registered sex offenders, trafficking, and homicide.

CCAW PROGRAMS

Check out the programs that Conference on Crimes Against Women has to offer!

The Conference on Crimes Against Women (CCAW) launched the National Training Center on Crimes Against Women (NTCCAW) in 2023. NTCCAW allows CCAW to expand to year-round programming, broadening the ability to dive deeper into discipline-specific topics and increasing the opportunity to reach other disciplines such as healthcare, faith communities, and higher education.

The National Training Center (NTC) serves as an integral part of CCAW's mission to provide a national forum to disseminate the highest level of training. This is accomplished by providing progressive and advanced training from our array of subject matter experts that we have cultivated over the last two decades through the annual conference. NTCCAW offers a space for our state and national partner(s) to host events and trainings.

Visit www.trainingcaw.org to learn more about the NTC and see upcoming training opportunities.

The Institute for Coordinated Community Response (ICCR) works alongside rural communities to improve their collaborative, systemic responses to domestic violence. Criminal justice practitioners from a rural community review current practices, learn from experts, and collaboratively implement changes to begin establishing an effective, sustainable Coordinated Community Response (CCR). This also includes a robust program comprised of quarterly in-person trainings hosted in a rural community.

In addition, ICCR provides training focused around the unique needs of rural communities on a national level. This is accomplished by providing free e-courses, virtual roll call trainings, monthly webinars, and a two-day virtual conference; Collaborative Responses to Domestic Violence in Rural Communities.

Since its inception in 2018, ICCR has worked solely with counties throughout Texas, however in 2023 ICCR was awarded funding from the Office of Violence Against Women (OVW) to expand its work to rural communities throughout the United States.

Visit www.instituteccr.org to learn more about ICCR and online training opportunities.

The Podcast on Crimes Against Women serves as an extension of the information and topics presented at the annual Conference, providing in-depth dialogue, fresh perspectives, and relevant updates by experts in the fields of victim advocacy, criminal justice, medicine, and more. The podcast creates a space to engage and educate community members on the issue of violence against women, how it impacts our daily lives, and how we can work together to create lasting cultural and systemic change.

Visit www.conferencecaw.org/podcast to listen to all five seasons of the Podcast on Crimes Against Women, or subscribe to the podcast on your favorite platform.

Follow us on social media for up-to-date information on each of these programs!

OPENING PLENARY SPEAKERS

MONDAY, MAY 20TH | LONE STAR BALLROOM

This unique keynote conversation will feature Tony Porter, CEO, and Kimya Motley, CCO of A Call to Men. Through an interactive discussion, Kimya will share her story as a survivor of domestic and gun violence. Tony will share the role men play in challenging societal norms and dismantling harmful behaviors, and how men can use their influence and platform to be a significant part of the solution to preventing violence against women and girls.

2024 IGNITE AWARD WINNER

ON THE ROAD LENDING

On the Road Lending is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization founded in 2013 that provides vehicle selection assistance and long-term financial mentoring to address a misunderstood, but substantial problem—providing a way for low-income individuals and families to overcome transportation barriers so they can get to work, lead healthier lives, and avoid predatory lending. On the Road Lending helps people improve their credit and purchase fuel-efficient, reliable cars, financing them through their sister private-equity loan fund with a low-cost loan.

Lack of reliable transportation is one of the reasons people lose their jobs. On the Road Lending helps people overcome this risk by finding them reliable cars that are affordable, under warranty, and fuel-efficient so they never have unforeseen, expensive car repair bills. They work with clients to build financial capability and then arrange an affordable loan. They stay with their clients for the life of the loan—usually five or more years—providing financial mentorship and support.

"I've really seen some amazing things since I started this company. Without fail, I have seen tears each time I deliver a car. These tears are tears of joy, relief, and gratitude. These are families who are amazed that someone would take a chance on them. I have seen people get raises and promotions because they could get to work on time. I have seen people whose children could go to better schools because their parents could get them there. I have seen families achieve economic mobility and better health. It is more than freedom of time, although that is critically important. I have learned that these families—my friends—love their cars in the same way I love mine."

The poster features a dark, textured background with a central red sunburst shape containing the text 'HOWDY HOUR' in large, white, distressed font. Above the sunburst, it says 'JOIN US FOR OUR ANNUAL HOWDY HOUR' and 'MAY 20, 2024 | 5:30 - 7:30 P.M.'. The scene is illustrated with white silhouettes of cacti, a sombrero on a table, and birds flying against a sunset sky. At the bottom, a list of activities is separated by red stars: 'CASINO ★ DJ ★ NACHO BAR ★ RAFFLE ★ CASH BAR'.

MMIW TEXAS REMATRIATE RED DRESS PROCESSIONAL

MMIW Texas Rematriate is a grassroots organization that educates and advocates for the MMIW/P crisis, not only in Indian Country, but in urban areas such as Dallas-Fort Worth (DFW). They support families in finding their missing/murdered Indigenous relatives and bringing them home in spirit or in flesh.

The RED DRESS Processional honors the women who have been lost due to violence. The dress MMIW Texas Rematriate leads showcases the color red, a color known to be sacred in many tribes. It is believed to transcend the physical world and call to those in the spirit world. During the processional, it is calling attention to those who have been missing or murdered.

TUESDAY, MAY 21

LOUD ENOUGH

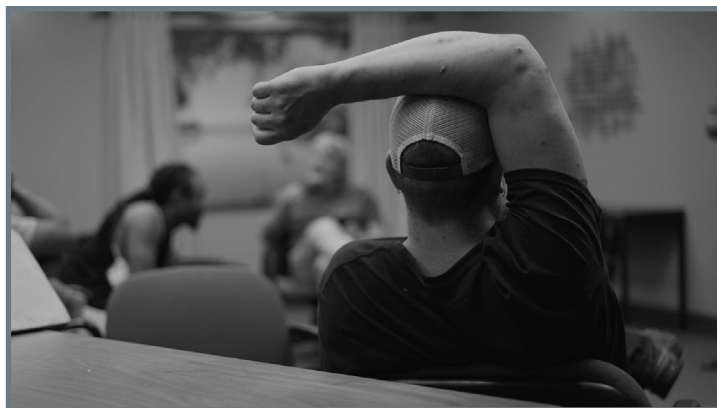

Justin Boardman, Julie Germann,
Madison Smith, Engel Entertainment

6:00-8:00pm | LONE STAR A3/A4

After surviving a life-threatening sexual assault in her hometown of Lindsborg, Kansas, college freshman Madison Smith and her parents were stunned when the local county prosecutor declined to file charges against the rapist, despite a strong case and compelling physical evidence. Traumatized by both the assault itself and her treatment by the police and prosecutor, Madison never wavered from the conviction that her attacker must be held accountable. She and her family refused to let the criminal justice system deny the facts and ignore her case, or to give up their quest for legal consequences.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 22

In America, most female homicide victims are killed by their current or former partner and one in four women experience domestic violence or abuse. In this documentary Peabody and Emmy-winning filmmaker Deeyah Khan ask a simple question: is it possible to reduce these endemic levels of male violence? In search of an answer, she hears heartfelt testimonies from survivors and victims' families, and gets vital insights from social workers and psychologists who work with violent men. And she speaks to those whose voices are rarely heard in conversations about domestic violence yet hold the key to stopping it: the perpetrators themselves.
